

Department of Veterans Affairs
Washington, D.C.

Betty Moseley Brown, Ed.D.

Dr. Betty Moseley Brown assumed the position of Associate Director of the Center for Women Veterans on November 1, 2004. In this capacity, she advises and assists the Director of the Center for Women Veterans in planning, directing, managing, and coordinating programs and activities of the Center.

Dr. Moseley Brown's passion for Veterans began during her United States Marine Corps service from 1978 – 1992. Her Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) career began at the San Diego Regional Office, where she was a Veterans Benefits Counselor and served as the Women Veterans Coordinator. She briefly left the VA to work for the Department of the Navy.

Dr. Moseley Brown returned to VA in 2001, working as a program analyst in the Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA), Compensation and Pension Service. In 2002, she served as the operational assistant and advisor to the Associate Deputy Under Secretary for Policy and Program Management, and was VBA's first outreach coordinator, where she coordinated outreach activities of five major programs to ensure that VBA's outreach efforts met legislative requirements while providing Veterans and dependents with information on benefits and services administered by VA.

As Associate Director, Dr. Moseley Brown served as the facilitator for VA's 2008 National Summit on Women Veterans' Issues. This quadrennial event brought over 400 Veterans, Veteran Service Organizations, Veteran Advocates, Congressional Members and Staffers together to discuss the current issues on women in the military and Women Veterans. In March 2010, Dr. Moseley Brown kicked-off the "Her Story" campaign to recognize the military contributions of women Veterans.

Dr. Moseley Brown has a Doctor of Education degree from the University of Sarasota. She is an avid Toastmaster, achieving the levels of Advanced Toastmaster, while serving in a leadership role as Area Governor. Dr. Moseley Brown is a 2004 Leadership VA (LVA) alumnus and 2009 graduate of the Federal Executive Institute.
